Toy Library Information Leaflet

Have you considered the benefits of play to you and your family?

Play is good for all age groups. It combines a whole host of mental and physical benefits to individuals and families alike. Apart from just being enjoyable, it is:

- Healthy
- Educational
- Sociable
- Recreational
- Great for family bonding
- Fun!

Psychologists have identified numerous ways that play helps childhood development. It enhances:

- Thinking power
- Mental fitness
- Practical knowledge
- Personal and emotional well-being
- Physical development

What is a Toy Library?

Toy Libraries allow parents/carers and children to access a variety of different toys and books at low cost. They work just as ordinary libraries do, enabling toys to be hired for short periods of time.

The Toy Library is committed to providing:

- Good quality toys to hire
- A wide range of toys suitable for babies, toddlers, pre-school children. There is also a range of toys specifically for children with special needs
- Information, ideas and support for playing with your child
- Resources for the community groups e.g. Pre-schools and parent and Toddler groups

Where is Hertsmere Toy Library based?

Our main Toy Library is based at The BECC Children's Centre in Borehamwood. It also visits other venues in the Community. You are welcome to visit the Toy Library at any of our locations. See our website at www.hertsmere-children.co.uk to view the current Toy Library timetable.
